PRESENTING

The John Adams High School Family Album

Sue Smith, Editor

South Bend

May, 1950

SINCE this year is the turn of the century there are many experiences to be remembered by all. The Album staff has attempted in the Family Album to help you remember many events of the year 1949-50. One book could not hold all the pictures of Adam's activities. The lives of our two most typical Adam's students chosen by you to represent the students of our John Adam's family are featured in this book. During the many years to come we hope you may look back on their pictures and reminisce about our happy family unit.

FACULTY

John Adams Administration

HEREWITH the Album gives you the Adams administration and faculty – ladies, gentlemen, scholars. Of course we haven't called them that right along, but now that we're leaving them we love them! From Bauer to West, from 10B to 12A, they have labored mightily over us. If any of us ever amount to anything, much credit to these, our faculty and friends should be given.

This year ends the first ten in Adams history. As any well organized group should, Adams has progressed in its dramatic productions, athletic programs, and its school spirit has been lifted to an all time high.

Mrs. Borough, Miss Inwood, Mr. Swartz, and Mr. Carroll are new in our Adams family this year, but they will help us, in the years to come, carry on the progress of John Adams.

Miss Stitt, looking for a new Vogue creation.

Hi'o Fellows.

It's like this, at a pep session.

What are the headlines?

Mr. Reber and two physics enthusiasts.

Miss Roell and her girls.

Student Council

UNDER the guidance of Mr. Rothermel, who was the faculty advisor this year, the John Adams Student Council has contributed many ideas and advantageous projects to our school. The Council hopes to have a sophomore handbook completed by summer vacation. Another worthwhile project was the beginning of the traditional "Dribble Dance" after the Adams-Central Basketball game.

Our student Council presents a form of interpreting the ideas of the students to the faculty and its is also a means of presenting the faculty's ideas to the student body.

Hi-Y

OF THE 47 members in Hi-Y, Jim Sears served as President; Dick Bolesky, Vice President; Bill Tait, Secretary; Bill Baranowski, Treasurer; Dick Breueseke, Chaplain and Bruce Million as Sergeant-at-arms. The Hi-Y is a high school club for boys sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. These boys had for their purpose, "To maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian Character." Their platform was "clean living, speech, scholarship, and sports."

The Hi-Y did various things for the community during the past year. It sent delegates regularly to district, state, and national conferences, it planned its own programs, it helped in the Annual County Hi-Y Swingheart Sway, it had regular "social" nights for its members, and it participated in the local state, and national Y. M. C. A. programs.

The Hi-Y is also of service to the school. As in previous years they had charge of the Christmas Seal Sale. They also have maintained a pamphlet library for the use of the Student body. According to tradition they presented the annual Easter program. They were assisted by the Elmhurst College Polyhymnia, A Capella Ensemble.

JOHN A

Y-Teens

THE Y-TEENS is one of our active clubs here at Adams. It is a club for girls and is the successor of the Girl Reserves as a Y. W. C. A. school club.

Miss Stitt sponsored the group of 22 girls. Of these, LaVerne Kluska served as President, Joan Gearhart as secretary. Shirley Bourdon was treasurer and Margaret Haumesser, worship chairman. These girls were officers in the fall semester. During the spring semester the offices were held by the following people; Jane Gindleberger, president; Margaret Haumesser, secretary; Patty Fugate, treasurer; Unice Rolfe was in charge of publicity and Katherine Null was council representative.

The Y-Teens had two meetings every month. One of these was a business meeting and the other was a planned program about something of interest to all the girls in the organization.

The Y-Teens hae taken part in many worthwhile projects. One of the most important was during Christmas time when they made tray favors for the nurses homes and brought gifts for children in foster homes. Another important project was the campaign in which they helped send chocolate overseas.

LAST September the Junor Red Cross Council elected officers for the year: Bob Pfaff, president; Mary Swingendorf, vice president; and Rosalie Fragomeni, secretary-treasurer. Miss Law was their sponsor.

At later meetings movies were shown of Red Cross activities. Beverly Morey, the chapter delegate, reported the activities of the Junior Red Cross Leadership Training Camp at Dowling Michigan, which she attended last summer.

The Council planned three projects for the year. The first was the annual enrollment drive. The second project was a Christmas party for the Children's Aid Society in Mishawaka. As the spring activity, the girls made stuffed animals for the children's hospital.

Members.

Ushers Club

THE USHERS' CLUB sponsored by Mr. Weir is becoming increasingly popular with the boys at Adams. Several of the projects this club handled in the last year were the ushering at the football and basketball games, the Christmas Service, the Invitational Basketball Tourney, County Basketball Tourney, the Sectionals and Regionals, School Plays, Civic Music, the South Bend Symphony and Professional Basketball Games.

The club has a total membership of 32. The leaders of the club are: Bill Haefle, head usher; Andy Smithberger, 1st captain; Bob McCreary, 2nd captain; Dick Kealor, secretary; Jack Silvis, activities secretary.

Every time an usher reports for duty on time and observes the by-laws of the club, he receives a merit. When he is not on time and does not follow the by-laws, he receives a demerit. Eighty merits rewards an usher with a white star, whereas four demerits automatically discontinues an usher's membership. The boys have done a fine job which is greatly appreciated by the school.

THE SCREEN CLUB, a club always in action but seldom in the news, is sponsored by Mr. Rothermel. Of the 15 members, Bill Baranowski served as President; Tom Hatch, Vice President; Wesley Habart, secretary; and Bob Kuntz as Treasurer. The Club held an informal meeting every Tuesday noon at which they discussed any problems which arose in their work. The boys are available during their study hall to operate any films which are being shown in classes.

THE LIBRARY CLUB consists of 27 members. The officers are Nancy Coswell, President; Barbara Swanson, Vice President; Marianne Opperman, Secretary; and Margie Rumsey, Program Chairman. Miss Moberg is the sponsor.

The activity of the club consists of mending and preparing books for use, and keeping the library in a smooth running order.

This year the Club entertained the New Paris and Wakarusa Library Clubs at idea-exchanging pot-luck dinners.

Debate Club

THE ONE exception to our usually peaceful school is the Debate Club which does not engage in physical battles but in verbal ones. Mr. Goldsberry sponsors this group, and, by virtue of his Social Living classes, he is well abreast of the current debate topics. The topic this year being; "Resolved that the President of the United States should be chosen by direct election." The club has 15 members of which David Sanderson is President and Evelyn Estes is Secretary.

The important events of this year were extemporaneous speeches, debates, round-table discussions and after dinner speeches.

Drama Club

THE DRAMA CLUB is not a club restricted to those who have any particular talent in the dramatic line, it is for those who have an interest in drama in any form. Any person who feels he would like to fiind out a little more about drama is welcome.

The past year the Drama Club was lead by the Drama Board which is headed by Lois Warstler.

The largest annual project of the club is its Chicago trip. Each year this trip is made by some of the members of the club. During this day in Chicago the sights of the Loop are taken in and in the afternoon a stage production is seen. This year the play seen was "The Mad Woman of Chaillot".

The Drama Club played a large part in the school production "The Bat" which was presented last fall. It took part not only in supplying some members of the cast but also in organizing the committees which worked behind the scenes. The play was directed by Mr. Casady and proved to be very enjoyable for all who participated.

When not occupied by play promotions the club holds weekly meetings at which programs pertaining to dramatics are staged. However this year there wasn't much spare time because this spring the club assisted the Glee Club in producing the musical "Wildower". And so the Drama Club wrote finis to another busy and successful year.

G. A. A.

THE GIRL'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION is under the direction of Miss Tash. The officers are: president, Delores Davis; vice president, Pat Rohrbaugh; secretary, Carol De Clark; treasurer, Vivian Hartter; and sergeant-at-arms, Sandra Goller.

The girls have an interest in sports and sportsmanship. They all take an active part in the varied program of the club. The girls go swimming once a week at the Natatorium and take part in the testing program which is held during lunch hour. The G. A. A. meetings are held every Tuesday in the Student Lounge.

The sports the girls participate in are: basketball, baseball, field hockey, soccer, volley ball, badminton, tennis, track, dancing, and tumbling. Swimming and bowling are part time sports.

The G. A. A. sponsored a dance, "Stag or Drag", after the Adams-Elkhart game. The Adams Dance Band played for it. The G. A. A. was also responsible for the feeding of many hungry mouths at the basketball games this winter. The members were the girls behind the concession booths.

Monogram Club

MEMBERSHIP in the Monogram Club is limited to those boys who received a major letter in any of the seven school sports. He becomes a full fledged member upon payment of his semester dues.

This, the third year of the club, was a busy and productive one. One of the ways of raising money for their activities was the sale of schedule pencils.

The club sponsored and managed all the awards assemblies this year. They purchased a trophy for each of the four major sports, football, basketball, baseball, and track. These trophies are awarded to one boy from each of these sports after each season is completed.

During the basketball season, the Monogram Club had its own reserved section for all home games. Admittance was free to members. They constituted the center of the cheering section. With the club as a nucleus there was a decided improvement in the support given the players.

This year the sports award was changed. The former blue S. B. has been replaced by the blue letter A. Now the Adams letter winner is a marked man.

The annual Sox Hop at which the music was furnished by Mr. Deardorf's dance band, was held in the gym.

The officers for the first semester were: president, Mel Edgerton; vice president, Jack Troeger; secretary, Gene Wright; treasurer, Marlin Miller; sergeant-at-arms, Paul Rogers. Faculty advisor, Mr. Koss.

The officers for the second semester were: president, Dick Bennett; vice president, Bruce Million; secretary, Bill Weartherly; treasurer, Marlin Miller; sergeant-at-arms, Jack Troeger.

Glee

THE 1949-50 GLEE CLUB was made up of one hundred and ten members, who had practice in the traditional way. Sectional practices were held at 7:30 A. M. and the Tuesday evening practice at 7:00 P. M.

In the fall a group from the Glee Club sang in a chorus of 550 students which participated in the North Central Chorus which was directed by Dr. Wilfred Bain, Director and Dean of Music of the University of Indiana. Later in the year the Glee Club joined the other high schools in presenting "Everyman", a morality play, on May 4, 5, and 6.

The Glee Club staged its annual Christmas Vespers Service and was rewarded for its efforts by an overflowing crowd. The same program was given for the student body. During the Christmas season the Glee Club attempted something new by caroling at the St. Joseph and Memorial Hospitals, the First Bank and Trust Co. and at Robertson's Department Store. The idea seemed successful and was put down as a probability for next year.

The Girls Triple Trio and the Boys Double Quartet had numerous requests to sing for various organizations. They both sang for the P.T.A. and for the Teachers' Federation Banquet in October, in which they were assisted by a group from the Glee Club.

The major production of the year was the presentation of the musical comedy "Wildflower" on March 29 and 30. The Drama Club assisted with the show and it proved to be most enjoyable for all who participated.

The Glee Club closed a busy and successful year by singing at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Instrumental

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC offers pleasure to us, the students of John Adams, as well as the rest of South Bend. The bands and orchestra offer a means of expression to its many talented members. The band groups are under the direction of Cecil R. ("Doc") Deardorff and the orchestra is under the baton of Miss Phyllis Schuman.

The marching band traveled to Riverview Park in Chicago before the opening of school and thrilled a huge crowd in their annual contest. The marching group also added their fancy steps to the football games. "Jumping Jim" Considine was the drum major and Carol Roelke was the band mascot.

The John Adams concert band played concerts for the Kiwanis Club, McKinley School, and Jefferson School, other than the annual student concert. The concert group also competed in the Northern Indiana Band, Orchestra, and Choral Contest held in La Porte. They came out with a first in sightreading and a second in competition. Evelyn Troub is the band librarian.

Soloists and ensembles also got their chance during the winter season. Twelve soloists and eight ensembles received superior ratings at the Northern Indiana Solo and Ensemble Contest in Nappanee. At the State Championships held at the Arthur Jordan Conservatory of Music in Indianapolis Garry Puckett, Jay Miller, and five ensembles earned first divisions.

The dance band has added much to the social functions here at Adams. They played the popular tunes at the annual Dribble Dance, the G. A. A. dance, and the Stardust Cafe.

The orchestra played for the McKinley School Dedication and accompanied the glee club in "Wildflower". Orchestra officers are: Sylvia Lerner, president; Evelyn Troub, vice president; and Nancy Hastings, secretary-treasurer.

Album

BY THIS time the purpose of the Album staff must be evident. In the back room 101, a group of students has worked at least one hour a day of the school year to publish a book of memoirs for the student body. Sponsored by Mr. Carroll, the staff feels it has been successful. During the hour set aside for Album work, we of the staff have worked on everything from Latin translation and "Operation Snack Bar" to how many copy spaces on the various club layouts. We've had our fun and our headaches. Now we offer neither praises nor apologies — but just the Album.

Golf

MR. THOMPSON again coached the John Adams golfers to a successful season. All home matches were played at The Erskine course. Golf, like tennis, is played as a series of individual matches. Habart held the number one position this year with Moore, Weissert, Grimshaw, Dickens, and Million in that order. These were chosen for the team from many aspirants who tried out for positions. Weissert, Moore, and Grimshaw were returning team members. The captain for this year's team was chosen at the end of the season.

FEATURES

Mr. and Miss

THIS year, in keeping with the theme of our Album, the Adams Family, the students chose by popular vote a boy and a girl to represent the students of our family. Here you see "Mr. and Miss Adams," Richard Bennett and Shirley Rogers in various scenes of a typical school day. It was with good reason that Dick and Shirley gained their places as the most typical Adams students.

Dick was this year president of the Adams student council and a member of the school student forum. He was president of his senior class and in his senior B year president of the Monogram Club. He was an active member of the Adams Hi-Y. He played varsity basketball for three years and was captain of the tennis team of which he was a member for three years. He was a member of the baseball team for three years. With his Athletics and many other extra-curricular activities,

CLOCKWISE: Every morning at eight . . .

Dishes, Shirley's Home Companion.
Current Events in the morning.
Gotta look pretty ——.
Breakfast with the Rogers.
Miss Efficiency.

Adams

Dick remained an honor student. He always has a cheery "hello" for everyone and is forever glad to be of assistance to everyone for any reason.

Shirley with her gay smile and willingness to help has played an active part in school affairs. She was an active member of Drama Club, working on the committee for "Captain Jinks" and "The Bat". She was in the casts of "Crime at Blossoms" and "The Bat". Shirley was advertising manager of the Tower in her senior year and has been a member of the Advertising staff for two years. She is worthy advisor of the Order of Rainbow for girls and for the past year has served as president of the Junior Progress Club. She was the Adams representative for the Robertson's High School Fashion Board.

With students such as Dick and Shirley, Adams has good reason to be proud of her student body and its accomplishments.

CLOCKWISE: The All-American breakfast.

Rise and shine!
Look sharp! Feel sharp! Be sharp!
What? No meld?
Mr. Weir's wonder.
Who's the lucky gal?

Driver's Training

JOHN ADA

LOWER LEFT: It's a fascinating mechanism girls. MIDDLE: Mr. Powell and those women drivers! UPPER RIGHT: Now, Mr. Powell, don't look so disturbed. It'll be all right.

TO BE better citizens in this mechanical age, one must learn to operate mechanical devices well. The most treacherous of all (and even more so in the hands of the ladies according to the male species) is the automobile. Whether one drives a 1950 Packard or a 1938 Ford, the care with which one drives always shows. Statistics say that teen-age drivers are the worst in the country. In his driver's training courses, Mr. Powell, is attempting to help the high school students get rid of those disgraceful statistics. In classroom work and actual driving experience one learns the skills of driving, the laws of state and country, the common driving courtesies, and what makes the car "tick" or the mechanism under the hood. Better drivers will make better and safer citizens. John Adams is doing its part to improve safety practices.

Shop

A VERY active part of the school is the Adams shop, conducted by Mr. Dickey and Mr. Thompson. The shop is very well equipped and efficiently run. There are opportunities for boys and girls alike to learn industrial and commercial arts. The finished products, whether tables, book ends, letter openers, or vases, are pieces of work anyone would be proud to own. The boys in the print shop provide programs and tickets for school affairs. The future mechanics have ample opportunity to learn the use of the various machines. The shop students aid in set construction for dramatic productions. The thanks and appreciation of the student body are heartily extended to them.

American Culture Trip

SEVENTY-SIX sleepy Juniors boarded busses at 5:30 o'clock on the morning of October 14 and headed for Greenfield Village at Dearborn, Michigan. They were on their way to see colonial life in its reality. The affair was the annual American Culture Trip to the village and the Ford plant.

The group paused at the Irish Hills to stretch their legs and take in some of the lovely scenery. Proceeding on their journey, they arrived at Dearborn and saw such things as 58 Bagley Avenue, the birthplace of the Ford car, and the Wright Cycle Shop, the birthplace of the airplane. Houses and stores, imported from across the sea, and actual colonial homes and shops were viewed. Indeed, it was like stepping into a different world.

The students visited the Edison Institute, founded by Henry Ford, where they saw many exhibits including that of transportation methods through the years.

Many found the Ford plant the most interesting part of the day. There they saw the glass plant and final assembly line.

Then it was home and BED!

Soci Trip

The Hunters Chorus—"Some like to hunt the wild elephant . . ."

ON MARCH 29 and 30, the Glee Club, under the musical direction of Mrs. Pate and director James Lewis Casaday, presented the musical comedy, WILDFLOWER. The Drama Club under the supervision of Miss Kaczmarek aided the Glee Club with the production. The plot of the story pertained to the efforts of a fiery young peasant girl

The Soldiers Chorus—". . . tell her she's no four-leaf clover . . ."

The Music Box Chorus—". . . They're only made of China . . ."

to hold her temper for six months to gain a fortune. Carolyn Johnson and Jackie Clemans were doubly cast as Nina, the leading lady. Dick Carlson capably played Guido, Nina's fiance. Sharon Chambers role as Bianca, Nina's city cousin and rival for the fortune was well portrayed. The musical was very well received and everyone concerned had good reason to be proud of his professional production.
